

Hamilton National Rally 2017.

NHMA JUNIOR ENCOURAGEMENT AWARDS.

Liam Jeffery. 14 years

Liam started to develop his skills in the art of blacksmithing in 2015.

These skills came from a little personal assistance at the Hamilton Pastoral Museum however the majority of Liam's skills has come from personal research and self-learnings.

Today he knows where his skill levels are and admits he has a long way to go.

He knows his product and communicates well.

A blacksmith of the future.

Ben Mackie. 15 years

Undertook tractor restoration via the watch full eye of his grandfather.

He has a great understanding of the tractor, its controls and operation.

Very interested junior that will grow into bigger and better things.

On finishing school Ben would like to complete an apprentice as a tractor mechanic.

Matthew Bresinette. 12 years.

Restored saw bench and engine with his grandfather as part of keeping the family dream alive.

From experience gained during the restoration Matthew was able to make comment on all facets of the machine.

From the interest shown in vintage machinery by Matthew he will be attending many rallies in the future.

Milton Fulford. 11 years

Ask this young man a question about his Sundial and he will give you the answer.

Whilst only young Milton is a proud exhibitor full of enthusiasm and will be a strong compedetor on the grounds at future rallies.
